a velvet hand, a hawk's eye

For a very limited time, Steven Taylor Photography are offering wedding photography from 1 hour before the ceremony to sit down at the wedding breakfast for just £600.

Two weeks after your wedding you will receive all of your fully edited and finished images on a disc. You can have the disc printed yourself or Steven Taylor Photography can help you make your images the way you want them. Album options are available at special discounted prices.

This is a unique and exclusive offer to Merewood and Cragwood customers only.

Steven Taylor Photography is one of the UK's leading professional wedding photography teams. With over 35 years of experience.

On the day you will be photographed by Steven and Joshua Taylor (father and son) in an unobtrusive "reportage" style, Steven was a pioneer of this style of wedding photography and is regarded by the profession as one of the best at it in the UK. This offer is just for weddings at the Merewood or Cragwood, but can include a local Church, that will take place in December 2011, January or February 2012. This service is not available at any other time.
